Fantasy Football

The fantasy football season is just around the corner, and in the scramble to choose your team, don't forget to get the awards from last season. You know you should have ordered them a few months ago, but that is OK, we got your back!

With the constant stresses of everyday life, fantasy football can be just the thing to get away from your family, kids and job. Spend a couple of hours behind the computer and get your roster set for draft night! A good draft, thoughtful trades and uninjured players will help you bring home the hardware! Good luck and remember us when you win – we will be here to help you celebrate!

For the non-fantasy football players out there, none of the above probably made sense. Here is Fantasy Football 101:

Fantasy football is an American tradition during football season, during which individuals, called 'owners,' form their fantasy team by picking from the season's players in a traditional or auction-style draft. An owner's players are then tracked throughout the season. They earn points for certain statistics, like touchdowns, receptions, fumbles, or field goals. Points are tallied on the player's accomplishments. Each week an owner goes up against another owner. The team that scores the most points wins that week. The teams that have the best divisional records towards the end of the season make the playoffs. Whoever wins the playoffs is the grand champion.

Yearly recognition of your league's winners (and losers) can help to amp up the energy at your draft, create trash-talk throughout the year, and help keep the league together for a long time.

Choose from our wide selection of ongoing perpetual-type awards, individual awards and joke trophies. Looking for something for the person who came in last? Try our Fantasy Football Loser Trophy, or our Outhouse Bobblehead Trophy for a laugh. Whatever your league needs for this fantasy football season, Trophies2Go has it!

STAR 101.5 Seattle

Kent & Alan Wiener Dog Races

Once a year at Emerald Down, the littlest runners take center stage in the Annual Weiner Dog Races in Auburn. This event is fun for people of all ages, and if you're worried about missing out on the fun of horse races, don't! The horse races continue on as usual throughout the day.

Hosted by STAR 101.5's Kent & Alan, this event draws thousands of eager dog-lovers and spectators yearly. What better way to spend an afternoon than at the racetrack with friends and family?

Trophies2Go has been sponsoring this event for six years now and, we hope, for many more years to come. We feel it is important to recognize these little runners and, in doing so, showing others that recognition isn't just for the big bosses of major corporations. Fun can be recognized and celebrated too!

"I love recognizing the wieners," says Jeff Anderson, owner of Trophies2Go, proudly. Whether you come out of the horse races in the black or in the red, at Emerald Down's Weiner Dog Races everyone is sure to have a good time. Trophies2Go is honored to be a sponsor of this great event!

The Weiner Dog Races take place on Friday, August 15th at the Emerald Downs Racetrack in Auburn.

Fantasy Football Perpetual Runningback Trophy

Perpetual trophies are a great idea for fantasy leagues, and can pass easily from winner to winner with each season. Having a perpetual trophy within your league also helps to keep the game going for years to come. The figure is made of a high-quality resin, and is sure to last as long as your league does. This award comes in silver on a black base (pictured), or gold on a dark wood base. Enter your five free lines of engraving for the faceplate; you can even include a team logo if it is an office league! Each side fits 6-8 years of winners, and it is as easy as unscrewing the plate and bringing it in (or mailing it) to us to get each subsequent year engraved.

This fantasy football perpetual trophy is the perfect way to celebrate each season's winners in your league. Motivate your players to the highest level and encourage fun with a perpetual award from Trophies2Go!

Tucker

We'd love for you to meet the most energetic member of our team; and endless supply of adventure and amusement, generous with his affections and handsome to boot. He is Tucker, and we're just crazy about him.

Tucker dutifully arrives at work every morning with Gayle and works tirelessly throughout the day. Greeting the UPS deliverymen with exuberance and walking to the mailbox for the day's mail are some of his favourite daily activities. He's more than happy to share your lunch with you, and it's hard not to when he stares at you sadly from your feet.

An endless wealth of energy, Tucker makes us all that much more eager to come to work. Here's to you, Tuck!
