TROPHIES2GO.COM – FOR THE RECOGNITION YOU DESERVE!

Summer 2010

Few Summer activities compare to swimming

Every year, the wait for summer feels like an eternity. Although we did enjoy the Winter Olympics this year, the rest of winter and spring came and went and thankfully it is now time for our favorite summertime things.

As the temperature rises, so does the urge to get in the water and go swimming. Pools all across America are hosting kids of all ages to splash and learn to swim from an early age. Right now, there are recreational parks, schools and summer swimming leagues getting the games underway. Swimming is one of the best sources of exercise, so adults should encourage kids to swim to prevent childhood obesity.

With all of this fun and activity, there are memories to be made. Memories that can last a lifetime. That's why it is so important to bring recognition to our youth. With all the great memories and exercise swimming brings to the kids, it's also a fun time for the big kids and adults. Here at Trophies2Go.com we feel that swimming is one of those sports that is not in the limelight often enough, yet it should be. We have all kinds of awards to encourage swimming. These trophies are designed to give the very best in recognition and much deserved credit to the best swimmer on the league or at the rec department. Swimming is a sport for all ages, and these days swimming is just about a necessity. Make it a special summer this year with Trophies2Go.com swimming trophies and awards.

CUSTOMER HIGHLIGHT: Swim Teams

With the swimming pools getting cleaned out and prepared for swimmers all over the nation, so too are the swim teams getting prepared for summer campers, rec department swim teams and school swim meets. At Trophies2Go.com, we feel the need to highlight all swim teams who make the sport one of the best to watch today. With guys like Michael Phelps making history in the sport of swimming, it doesn't seem as unrealistic as it once was to become an Olympic Champion

Swimmer.

The sport of swimming has grown over the years to be bigger than ever. One of the integral parts of being a part of a swim team is the bond that the kids make with teammates and the camaraderie that will be shared between swimmers. Even though swimming itself is an individual sport, the swim team comes together to win events as a group. With each and every stroke, kick and breath comes a new sense of accomplishment. The sport of swimming is an art and to be part of a swimming team takes incredible endurance and coordination, especially to swim at the competitive level.

Our huge selection of swimming trophies makes it easy to find the right awards for everyone on your swim team. Trophies2Go.com also has trophies for coaches, who deserve accolades for getting the kids prepared to become swimming champions. At www.trophies2go.com we have a little something for everyone!

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT: Craig Sheldon

Craig Sheldon is another outstanding employee of Trophies2Go. You may remember last year we had other members of the Sheldon family in our spotlight, and now it's Craig's turn. Craig grew up in the city of Renton, Washington; known for its huge Aerospace Program and industrial truck industries. He obtained a degree in computer programming and is a man who believes that you make it by hard work and continuing to learn throughout life. As a married man with two daughters, Craig is often outnumbered by women so he takes joy in coming to work every day. When he is not spending time with his family, he loves to work on Hotrods. Like most people, it is the dollar that motivated him to make all the sacrifices he has.

It's those employees like Craig Sheldon that Trophies2Go leans on to keep the company going. He is truly 'one of us'. Craig, your loyalty and outgoing personality is much appreciated. You deserve the Summer Spotlight. Thank you for all the hard work!
